

THE NEWS FROM THE OLD NORTH STATE AND ITS CAPITAL.

STILL ANOTHER
KNOCKOUT BLOWThe New School Law Again Declared Unconstitutional.

QUERIES OF TEACHERS

Fayetteville Baptist Pastor Resigns—Delivery of Bonds by State Treasure—Watching for Spoiled Oysters —A Sensational Trial at Greensboro —Additional Appointments in the Western North Carolina M. E. Conference.

Raleigh, N. C. Nov. 29.—The Superintendent of Public Instruction's office is being bombarded by queries from teachers and school officials asking for the effect of the Supreme court's division in the county school board cases.
Mr. Mebane is expected to return today from Greensboro where he went to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the National School. He will probably make public Attorney-General Walser's opinion when he returns.

THE NEW SCHOOL LAW.

The Supreme Court again decided yesterday that the new school law is unconstitutional, in so far as it seeks to remove county boards of education.
The decision is made in the case of J. G. Dalby vs. P. W. Hancock, from Granville. All of the members of the old board of education in Granville, with the exception of one, Fuller, are reinstated. His case falls because he has ceased to be a resident of the county.

Judge Walter Clark dissented in the opinion of the court save as to Fuller.

RESIGNATION OF PASTOR.

Rev. C. A. Thomas has resigned as pastor of the Fayetteville Baptist church and will become a travelling representative of the Baptist Female University. He is one of the strong men of his church, full of faith and work, and will do great things for the University as he presses its claims upon the Baptist hosts.

THE BONDS DELIVERED.

Treasurer Worth received yesterday a check for $65,250 from the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company of Winston for the $60,000 of four per cent bonds issued to pay for the State farms. Mr.
Thomas Maslin, of Winston, brought the check and received the bonds in return from Treasurer Worth. The bonds run until July 1st, 1909.

Yesterday also the new four per cent bonds which were received from the engraver some days ago were signed by the governor and deposited in the treasury to replace the old four per cents that were turned over to the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company last summer.

SPOILED OYSTERS.

Health Officer Sale advises people in buying oysters during the winter season to buy only the best quality and to be sure they are in good condition.
Large quantities of bad oysters have recently been seized and condemned on this market.

A SENSATIONAL TRIAL.

There was a decidedly sensational trial here yesterday afternoon. It seems that Mr. Moses Cone had bought the property of the North Carolina Steel and Iron Company, including a street railway that ran for 2,000 feet through the land of Capt. B. S. Fisher.
Mr. Cone transferred the railway to his brother, Mr. Caesar Cone, and one night last month the latter entered upon the land with about 100 laborers and removed the iron rails. Yesterday Capt. Fisher had Mr. Cone arrested for the larceny of the rails, or, to use the more polite term, for "statutory taking." The hearing was before "Squire Eckel, who heard Mr. Caesar Cone over to court. The matter will now be settled before Judge Brown.

EDENTON.

Edenton, N. C., Nov. 29.—Messrs.
Mitchell, Hollowell, and Fletcher, of Elizabeth City, are in Edenton this morning.

Arlington Minstrels are billed to appear here at Rea's Opera House Wednesday, December 6th. This performance will be given by Elizabeth City.

talent and will doubtless be all that is claimed for it.

Several strangers are in town this morning en route to their homes, we presume, to spend Thanksgiving.

Several peanut buyers are in our little city this morning.

Our dry goods merchants are enjoying a good trade this season.

Mr. Frank Wooten, of Norfolk, came down on last evening's train on a short visit to friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Winborne returned yesterday from Berkley, where they spent a few days with relatives.

ELIZABETH CITY.

PERSONAL MENTION—PUBLIC MEETING—HYMENEAL.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Nov. 29.—Mr.
John Armbricht, who has been spending a few days at his home, in Berkley, returned to the city to-day.

Mr. Buck Baxter has moved into his new residence, on West Church street.
Messrs. William Wood and Wilson
to attend a german.

Mr. W. G. Poole, formerly of this place, but now of Raleigh, is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Married Tuesday at the home of Mr.
J. T. Coppersmith, in the lower part of this county, by Rev. P. S. G. Davis, Mr.
Clarence Morse to Miss Jennie Coppersmith.

There will be a public meeting of the citizens at the Town Hall Friday at 7:30 o'clock p. m. to perfect plans for the establishment of a telegraph and telephone service between this city and Norfolk.

Mrs. D. W. Woodhouse, of Popular Branch, and Mrs. A. W. Ballance, of Currituck Courthouse, who have been in the city for several days visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. Will Dun-ton, on Mathews street, left yesterday for their homes.

Miss Cora Gard left yesterday for Richmond to attend the marriage of Dr.
Kleth, of Tarboro, to Miss Martin, of Palmyra, Va.

The fire alarm sounded this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The scene of the fire was W. H. Weatherley's residence, on Park avenue. The fire company responded promptly, but its service was not needed, as the flames were extinguished before its arrival.

Mrs. M. S. Beasley, of Popular Branch, who has been spending several days in the city, left yesterday for her home.

HERTFORD.

Hertford, N. C., Nov. 29.—The through freight was held here this morning on account of an accident to the engine. The train was drawn by engine No. 11 and is due at 7:20 every morning. The engine, with its string of cars, drew up at the Norfolk and Southern railroad depot and a loud explosion shook things all around. The cylinder head was blown out and carried a distance of thirty feet. No. 6 was wired for and drew the disabled engine to Edenton.

NEW BERN.

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 29.—The Elm City Drug Company of New Bern was granted articles of incorporation yesterday by the Secretary of State. The business proposed is the leasing and purchasing of stores, storage warehouses, etc.

The capital stock is to be $10,000.
Among the incorporators are George Avant, George P. Dudley, William H.
Burton, W. L. Lassiter, R. G. Mosely, John A. Boone, W. W. Lawrence, C. C.
Whitley, H. W. Thompson, C. C. Petty.

ALL OF THE LATE POPULAR MUSIC AT 18c. PER COPY.

At Hudnut's Pharmacy, 201 Broadway, New York, the young man who sold Ripans Tabules to a customer was asked whether there was much demand for them, and said:

"There's nothing in the store which sells as well as Ripans Tabules do. The demand is as regular and steady as for anything we carry in stock. Young and old, male and female seem to buy them. In fact, they seem to be in general demand. Not only that, but the demand seems to come from all classes.
The advertisements create the demand, but their merits back it up."

A new style packet containing THE RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—SOLD FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the LUDWIG CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 19 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.
